 - c. Participants who failed to attend will not be eligible for a refund.
 - d. Cancellation must be notified in writing to SPE. Email your cancellation request to apweb@spe.org.
- 4. Code of Conduct
 - a. SPE is committed to providing a professional, friendly and safe environment for all participants at its events, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, disability, race, ethnicity, religion, national origin or other protected class.
 - b. This code of conduct outlines the SPE expectations for all participants, including attendees, speakers, vendors, media, exhibitors, sponsors and volunteers. Cooperation is expected from everyone, and SPE will actively enforce this code throughout this virtual training course.
 - c. Participants will be provided with personalised credentials allowing them access to the virtual training course. These credentials are personal and non-transferable. Non-registered individuals and minors will not be able to access the virtual training course, unless upon prior agreement with SPE.
 - d. SPE expects all event participants to help ensure a safe and positive experience for everyone. Unacceptable behaviour will not be tolerated during any portion of a meeting or event. Unacceptable behaviour includes but is not limited to:
 - i. Intimidating, harassing, abusive, discriminatory, derogatory or demeaning speech or actions.
 - ii. Harmful or prejudicial verbal or written comments or visual images related to gender, sexual orientation, race, religion, disability or other personal characteristics, including those protected by law.
 - iii. Inappropriate contact including via electronic communications.
 - iv. The production or non-consensual sharing of harassing non-consensual photography or unwanted recording, including nudity and/or sexual images in virtual event (in any format, electronic or otherwise).
 - v. Real or implied threat of professional or financial damage or harm.
 - vi. Inappropriate and sustained disruption of sessions, meetings and/or events.
 - vii. Photographing, video or audio recording of slides, oral or presentations without prior written permission from SPE.
 - viii. Violating the rules and regulations of the virtual event platform.
 - ix. Cybercrime and dubious online practises include but not limited to phishing, spamming, spoofing and cyberstalking.
 - x. Inappropriate self-presentation or attire. Business casual dress code is preferred.

Reporting of harassment and disruptive behaviours can be made to apweb@spe.org.
 Consequences of misconduct may include:

 - i. Immediate removal from meetings and/or events without warning.
 - ii. Restrictions from future SPE events.
 - e. SPE reserves all rights to take any action to prevent and report violations of the Code of Conduct, including blocking access to SPE events. SPE cannot investigate reports of harassment or other misconduct during the virtual event but will inform the appropriate departments of the accused person's host institution about any such filed report.
- 5. Copyright

All content contained within the SPE events is copyrighted either by SPE or other providers and its capture in any format, use and/or reproduction outside the portal is strictly prohibited without express permission from the content owner(s).
- 6. Privacy Policy
 - a. SPE cares about the protection of participants' personal information. SPE complies with applicable privacy laws, including GDPR, in collecting and processing your data. Participants have control over how much of their personal data is shown to other users for networking purposes. Participants can manage the data in their personal profile within the virtual event platform. The virtual event platform provider processes the data attributed to this event on behalf of SPE. SPE collects and processes data for the purposes of fulfilling your registration order, analysing how this platform performs and is used, and marketing for future related SPE events. All participants maintain the right of erasure and can withdraw their consent at any time. Please see SPE's privacy policy for additional information.
 - b. By engaging with sponsor and exhibitor booths or content, participants are consenting to exhibiting and sponsoring companies having access to the personal data that is public in their personal profile. Participants will need to contact the exhibiting and sponsoring companies regarding their privacy policies and to request erasure.
 - c. Through the virtual event platform, participants may request to connect, which the receiving participant has the option to accept or decline. The platform's networking technology also recommends to participants related content and participants who match their interests.
 - d. For any queries or concerns please contact the events team at apweb@spe.org.
- 7. Disclaimer
 - a. SPE reserves the right to change the speaker(s), date(s) and/or to cancel the virtual workshop and training course should circumstance beyond its control arises.
 - b. SPE reserves the right to cancel a Training Course if number of participants is insufficient. A minimum of 15 days' notice will be given.
 - c. SPE will not be liable to participants for any damages, costs, losses or expenses of any kind incurred or suffered by participants as a result of or in relation to SPE modifying, postponing or cancelling the virtual workshop or any part of the virtual workshop.
