

11th SPE CSP Participation Agreement

This is an agreement form on the participation in the 11th Society of Petroleum Engineers Comparative Solution Project (11th SPE CSP), as provided by the CSP Publishers in the CSP description (attached), on the associated website <https://spe.org/csp/> and in a repository that will be determined prior to the project kick off.

Participants in 11th SPE CSP are the CSP Publishers and those who have signed this agreement as Participant. If a Participant consists of a collaborative team, a single submitted agreement from one representative will suffice and will be deemed as signed on behalf of the entire team. The deliverables of 11th SPE CSP are one or several journal publications, termed the CSP papers, reporting on the results provided by the Participants.

By signing this form, the following terms are agreed to:

1. The Participant will, by deadlines prescribed by the CSP Publishers, provide the following deliverables:
  - a. The provision of results according to formats determined by the CSP Publishers.
  - b. Short descriptions of applied methodologies according to templates provided by the CSP Publishers to be included in the CSP papers.
2. If deliverables are not submitted by deadlines provided by the CSP Publishers, or if the quality of the deliverables are considered unacceptable for publication by the CSP Publishers, the CSP Publishers have the right to decide to not include the results provided by the Participant in a CSP paper and as a consequence not include the Participant in the list of authors of that paper.
3. Before the CSP papers are published in peer-reviewed journals, the Participant cannot publish results or other specifics that are part of the CSP in any journal, book, or edited collection without explicit prior consent of the CSP Publishers.
4. After the publication of the CSP papers, the repository with all submitted deliverables deemed acceptable for publication according to Point 2 will be turned public.

I have read and agree fully with the terms of this agreement.
