Reservoir Engineering Software and Services

Unparalleled knowledge and experience

Fekete is an international consulting firm that has been providing integrated reservoir engineering services and software to the oil and gas industry for 35 years.

The strength of our expertise is the interdisciplinary co-operation between Fekete's geological, petrophysical, geophysical, and reservoir engineering staff and the integration of their results to arrive at a practical and technically rigorous reservoir interpretation.

We develop software that incorporates the latest in technology; it is innovative, easy to use, and provides practical and advanced solutions for reservoir engineering and production optimization projects.
