Sponsorship & Exhibition Opportunities

2026 SPE NORTH AMERICA STUDENT SYMPOSIUM

About This Symposium

The North American Student Symposium is a significant event coordinated by SPE International Students from across North America.

This year, the SPE North American Student Symposium is jointly organized by Louisiana State University and students from various universities across North America.

Why Sponsor SPE NASS 2026?

This premier event connects students, faculty, and industry leaders from across North America—creating unmatched networking opportunities.

Sponsorship helps offset event costs and keeps student attendance affordable, ensuring broad participation and lasting impact. Sponsors gain direct access to top talent, elevate their brand visibility, and demonstrate commitment to the next generation of energy professionals.

2026 North America Regional PetroBowl

This year, the competition will be held alongside the SPE NASS 2026, which will take place on Saturday, February 28th. By sponsoring this regional event, you place your company in front of future industry leaders.
