

SPE Asia Pacific Health, Safety, Security and Environment Conference and Exhibition

21 March 2007

Contact:

Cordella Wong-Gillett
Director Operations, Asia Pacific Office (Kuala Lumpur)
(+60.3.6201.2330; cwonggillett@spe.org)

KUALA LUMPUR, MALAYSIA (21 March 2007). The Society of Petroleum Engineers (SPE) is organising the Asia Pacific Health, Safety, Security and Environment Conference and Exhibition (APHSSEC) scheduled 10-12 September 2007, in Bangkok, Thailand. The theme of the conference is "Responsible Performance: Are We Doing The Best We Can?"

PTT Exploration and Production Plc. (PTTEP), is the host organisation for this important and prestigious event. Maroot Mrigadat, President, PTT Exploration and Production Plc. (PTTEP) is the Conference General Chairman.

The conference promises to be among the most successful and globally interactive events to date, attracting a diverse group of delegates from around the world, each a stakeholder in the fields of health, safety, security and environment. The event will provide the opportunity for producers, contractors and service company professionals to meet and discuss optimum ways of working together for the benefit of the oil and gas industry, and promote regional progress in health, safety, security and environmental management.

The Programme Committee has organised a total of 28 sessions including an opening session, keynote session, three plenary sessions, six panel sessions, fifteen technical sessions, one poster session, and closing session. The Opening Session will feature addresses by Maroot Mrigadat, 2007 APHSSEC Conference General Chairman, together with H.E. Dr. Piyasvasti Amranand, Minister of Energy, Thailand; H.E. Dr. Mohammed H. Al-Rumhy, Minister of Oil & Gas, Oman; and Eve Sprunt, 2006 SPE President.

Technical Programme

The topics for the daily technical sessions to be covered include corporate social responsibility, fitness for work, sensitive environments, management of major hazards, waste management, safety culture, oil spill issues, risk management in routine operations, performance management, environmental planning and reporting, and healthy workplace.

A Technical Exhibition will be conducted adjacent to the Technical Session rooms. Coffee/tea breaks are held in the exhibition area and will provide an excellent opportunity for networking among delegates, authors, and exhibitors.

For further information regarding participation in this Conference, as a sponsor, an exhibitor, or as a delegate, please contact Ms. Jenny Chong, SPE Event Manager, at telephone: 60.3.6201.2330, facsimile: 60.3.6201.3220 or e-mail: jchong@spe.org

###

About SPE

SPE (Society of Petroleum Engineers) is a not-for-profit professional association whose members are engaged in energy resources development and production. SPE serves 69,000-plus members in 112 countries worldwide. SPE is a key resource for technical knowledge related to the oil and gas exploration and production industry and provides services through its publications, conferences, workshops, forums, and website at www.spe.org.